Re: Letter Agreement

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

The purpose of this letter is to set forth the terms of our agreement governing this law firm's representation of the Government of Bolivia in the United States of America.

(1) Services to be Rendered

At your request and under the direction of your Embassy, this law firm will represent the Government of Bolivia as needed and as required on matters to be identified by you or your representative.

(2) Term of Agreement

This agreement is for Calendar Year 1990 and is renewable on a year-by-year basis.

(3) Billing

Every month, we will forward to you an itemized statement of all out-of-pocket expenses and legal fees incurred in connection with our representation. Fees for services will be billed in accordance with the normal hourly rates of the attorneys working on the representation and will be charged against the annual retainer fee. We will provide you with computer printouts describing in detail the services performed by each attorney working on this representation. Out-of-pocket expenses will include costs incurred during the course of the representation such as travel, photocopying, messenger service, long distance telephone charges, etc., and will also be charged against the annual retainer fee.

(4) Terms of Payment

For this representation, the Government of Bolivia agrees to pay William & Connolly an annual retainer fee in the sum of $50,000.

(5) Annual Accounting

At the end of Calendar Year 1990, there will be a full accounting of the fees and expenses incurred in the course of the year as charged and deducted from the annual retainer fee. If the fees and expenses incurred during the Calendar Year 1990 exceed the annual retainer fee, we will bill you for the outstanding balance. If, on the other hand, there is a balance remaining in the annual retainer fee after all fees and expenses for Calendar Year 1990 have been charged against that retainer and deducted, the excess will be credited to the retainer fee for the following Calendar Year.

(6) Right of Review

Either party has the right to ask for a joint review of the status of the account -- fees and expenses as compared with annual retainer fee -- during the course of the Calendar Year and can request an adjustment in the Terms of Payment.

(7) Right of Termination

Either party has the right, with thirty days notice, to terminate this agreement or to request a re-negotiation of the Terms of Payment.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter indicating your acceptance and understanding of the terms of this representation. If you have questions with respect to this
